Cost of Attendance (COA) An institution’s COA is an estimate of what it may cost for you to live and attend your program during the academic year. You may review the components of a COA here or visit your SURFS account to view your COA.	Expected Family Contribution (EFC) Despite its name, the EFC does not indicate how much a student will have to pay out of pocket to attend. It is primarily used as an indicator of financial need.	Financial Need A student’s financial need is determined by calculating the difference between the Cost of Attendance (COA) and the Expected Family Contribution (EFC).
Loan Types and Outside Aid Loans are funds that must be paid back. Loans available to Law-LLM students include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Unsubsidized Loans</li> <li>• Grad PLUS Loans</li> <li>• Private Student Loans - May be available to students not eligible for federal funds. Students must find and apply with participating private student loan lender.</li> </ul> Students are responsible for notifying our office of outside scholarships/aid. We reserve the right to adjust awards as we receive new information.	Scholarships Unlike loans, scholarships and grants do not need to be paid back. The Carey School of Law selects and identifies scholarship recipients during the admission process. If eligible, the award would reflect in the student’s current award package. Questions regarding institutional scholarships can be directed to the law school Financial Planning Manager, Marilyn Jones (mmjones@law.umaryland.edu). Please visit the link(s) below to seek scholarship information if you are considered a Maryland Resident with in-state tuition: Maryland Higher Education Commission	Federal Work-Study (FWS) Federal Work-Study (FWS) is a federal need-based grant awarded to financially eligible students based on the information listed on the submitted FAFSA. It is considered earning potential and not a lump sum payment.
